

CHAPTER 9.

[Published February 20, 1869.]

AN ACT to regulate and fix the time for holding certain terms of the circuit court in the ninth judicial circuit.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Time fixed.

SECTION 1. The terms of the circuit court for the county of Dane shall hereafter be held on the first Wednesday next succeeding the first Monday of April, and on the first Wednesday next succeeding the first Monday of November, in each year, and all writs, process or recognizances, made returnable at the March term of said court as now appointed by law shall be deemed returnable at the April term hereby appointed, and all persons under bail to appear at said March term shall appear at the April term hereby appointed, and the jurors, both grand and petit, drawn for the March term shall be summoned and stand as the jurors for the April term, and all proceedings in said court or returnable thereto, whether by recognizance or otherwise, shall be held and taken as returnable and continued to the term of said court to be held on the first Wednesday next succeeding the first Monday of April next. The jury term shall be held as now provided by law.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect immediately on its publication.

Approved February 17, 1869.
